11. DUBINS says that he and another Cuban political agent, Ray G. Lewis, went to Miami a month or so ago and at that time they met Ambassador Lomench and told him that he was interested in working with the Cuban Embassy in America and previously been commended with a military post in the Brigades in Mexico, but that camp had to be abandoned because of illness in the Brigades.

On 10/15/56, James Dwyer returned to New Orleans, according to him, he contacted the local office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and asked them if they could, in his words, "clear" David Schenck. The agents told him that while they could not give him an official clearance, they would look into the situation and would contact Dwyer and Mr. Dwyer, who is the ex-husband of the woman referred to above in New Orleans.

...of course, the fact that all of them are one of the same kind is not sufficient to show that they are all of the same kind. The fact that they are all of the same kind is not sufficient to show that they are all of the same kind.
