2. On 17 February LAMSPUR/1 delivered an official 1000000 report concerning the existence of two training camps in Algeria. One was said to be located in El Abide, Algeria, and to be undertaking military training of Portuguese and Spanish Communists. The other was nearby and was a camp of the Algerian National Liberation Camp. The El Abide camp was reported to have at least 300 trainees and to be under the command of Julio GARCIA, with Eloy GUTIERREZ acting as liaison officer. The report contains a detailed list of Cuban supplied armaments at the camp sufficient to outfit 2,500 men.

3. Lisbon Station is making the report to the other LAMSPUR/1 or Algeria Station. Although not able to locate "El Abide," the Station finds "El Abide" on its map at approximately 30 degrees north, 2.3 degrees west. Any confirmation of a military camp in this area, and clarification as to its relationship to the Iberian opposition, would be of great interest to Lisbon Station.
